“UNITED WE BARGAIN, DIVIDED WE BEG”

Contract 2021

The negotiations committee from Local Lodge 743 will soon meet with Collins Aerospace to negotiate a contract for you, our members. To be successful in this endeavor, we need all members to be engaged in the process by showing solidarity in the shop. Solidarity is defined this way: unity or agreement of feeling or action, especially among individuals with a common interest. This contract is our common interest. Any improvements made to the contract will benefit all the members of Local Lodge 743 and their families. The proposals made by the union committee are based on your survey responses.

The union representatives will be passing out buttons to wear during negotiations. These buttons represent the issues we want the company to improve in our contract. These issues include, job security, 401K and pensions, vacation, sick and personal time off, and also the fact that we are and have been essential workers during the Covid pandemic. There is also a button that highlights solidarity as being essential to our success. Please wear these buttons proudly in the shop and let management know we are serious about gaining improvements in our 2021 contract.

For our newer members, be prepared to hear noise in the shop during negotiations. This is how our members show solidarity during this time. In the old days, union members would communicate solidarity with a clap. This clap would start out slow like a heartbeat, then increase in speed as more members joined in until everyone was clapping together as one. The noise you will hear is our members letting the company know we are united.

Wearing buttons and union shirts show how we support each other and our negotiating committee. See your union representative to get buttons.

SHOW THE COMPANY WE ARE UNITED IN OUR DESIRE FOR A FAIR CONTRACT.

REMEMBER, WE ARE ESSENTIAL!
